CHRIS WAS PREMATURE.

Poor Chris Columbus, from his place, somewhere in silent, windswept space, looks down upon this whirling sphere, and wipes away a phantom tear. Perhaps he says, to old Cabot: "Those near-explorers down below, are drawing many golden beans by writing for the magazines, and some are knighted by the King, and all are cutting grass, by jing. They're lionized to beat the band, have worshipers on every hand, and what they did is no account; they found a pole or climbed a mount. Oh, Jumping Ginger, when I think, of how I sailed across the drink, and wrestled with a grouchy crew, and found a land that no one knew, those cheap explorers down below seem pretty punk to me, Cabot! And when I sailed back home again did I receive the praise of men? Did old Ben Hampton break his neck to load me with a big fat check? Did England's monarch take his sword and make of me a blooming lord? Did medals come from foreign lands, and ribbons blue from princely hands? Not on your whiskers, friend Cabot! My name was Mud, I'd have you know; they chucked me in a prison-trap, as though I was that Johnsing chap. This fact's as plain as yonder moon-I lived four hundred years too soon!" WALT MASON.

YESTERDAY IN CONGRESS. (JUNE 10, 1910.)

SENATE. The Senate resumed consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill yesterday. Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, addressed the Senate for nearly three hours in advocacy of a strong tariff commission and in support of the provision of the bill appropriating $250,000 for continuing the work of the tariff board. The Senator was sharply questioned by Sena tors Aldrich, Hale, and Gallinger. After Mr. idge concluded, Senator Hale attacked the tariff commission idea put forward by Mr. Beveridge as an attempt to destroy the Aldrich-Payne tariff law. The consideration of the bill was not completed, and it will be resumed to-day, when other insurgent Republican Senators will talk in

Read what one of the GREATEST NEWSPAPERS IN AMERICA has to say on this subject:

"The manufacturers of Castoria have been compelled to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to familiarize the public with the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. This has been necessitated by reason of pirates counterfeiting the Castoria trademark. This counterfeiting is a crime not only against the proprietors of Castoria, but against the growing generation. All persons should be careful to see that Castoria bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, if they would guard the health of their children. Parents, and mothers in particular, ought to carefully examine the Castoria advertisements which have been appearing in this paper, and to remember that the wrapper of every bottle of genuine Castoria bears the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, under whose supervision it has been manufactured continuously for over thirty years. - Philadelphia Bulletin.
